OF FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES
BY THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

Fraternal organizations represent the University of California, Berkeley's largest values-based community, with high standards of ethical leadership expected of all community members; the LEAD Center is here to assist officers achieve success in the four pillars of Leadership, Scholarship, Friendship, and Service.

All recognized fraternity and sorority chapters at the University must be sponsored or affiliated. (Sponsorship applies to non-housed fraternities and sororities, governing councils, and The Order of Omega; affiliation applies to housed fraternities and sororities).

The University of California, Berkeley ("University") recognizes and sponsors or affiliates with individual chapters of the fraternities and sororities of the Interfraternity Council ("IFC"), Multi-Cultural Greek Council ("MCGC"), National Pan-Hellenic Council ("NPHC"), and Panhellenic Council ("PHC"), whose purposes and practices are and remain consistent with those of the University. Official sponsorship or affiliation of these chapters is conferred by the LEAD Center, which serves as the University unit responsible for all such recognized and sponsored or affiliated fraternity and sorority chapters.

The primary emphases of member chapters of the four governing councils (IFC, MCGC, NPHC, PHC) are social, service, and fraternal, along with the personal development of chapter members and are entitled to single gender membership if they meet the provisions of Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments. Concurrent membership in more than one such fraternity or sorority organization is not permitted. Membership in a fraternity or sorority organization is limited to students at the University of California, Berkeley.

Since sponsorship or affiliation entitles use of the name of the University, among other benefits, actions of a recognized and sponsored or affiliated group reflect directly upon the University. Therefore, recognized and sponsored or affiliated groups must expect and accept a close advisory relationship with the LEAD Center and accept responsibility for compliance with University policies and procedures and their own stated purposes.
